Dear Cleve:

Sorry I did not get back to you last week, but things became horribly confused and when I finally tried to get you, the office was closed. We will have to arrange to use your "credit card" on our next trip to New York. We are most grateful for your offer of assistance.

I hope you will write your "ex-company" friend in Washington, Mr. Kimsey, so that I may get together with him.

Again, thank you for your help and my apologies for not getting back to you.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.
